DAILY SUMMARY ALERT

ALERTS DATE

The following section illustrates the date alerts were reported on Wednesday, 7th September, 2022.

ARMED ROBBERY

- Over 20 gunmen attacked commercial banks in Ankpa, Kogi State, on Tuesday. Ankpa, the headquarters of the state's Ankpa Local Government Area, was reportedly under robbers' siege for over an hour, resulting in the death of an unidentified lady. On their way to the banks, they were said to have attacked the town's police station first. They drove dangerously through the town of Ankpa with unending gunshots after robbing the banks for about an hour

ATTACK

- Some Boko Haram fighters who were fleeing military bombardment in Borno State were attacked by rivals from the Islamic State West Africa Province (ISWAP). According to a counter-insurgency expert and security analyst in Lake Chad, the military attacks forced hundreds of terrorists and their families to flee their camps in search of safe havens elsewhere. Unfortunately for the Jam'at Ahl as-Sunnah lid-Da'wah wa'l-Jihd and their families, they were attacked by their rivals, the ISWAP, who occupied Cingori and Yuwe, according to a source.

CULTISM ATTACK

- The Benue State Police Command has confirmed the arrest of 30 suspects in connection with the ongoing cult clash in the state's Gboko Local Government Area, which has claimed the lives of three people. According to reports, the conflict between rival cult groups was causing unrest in the local government, threatening the lives and property of residents. In an effort to restore normalcy in the community, the Chairman of the LGA partnered with security agencies, including police officers attached to the state police command. According to the state Police Public Relations Officer, who confirmed the ongoing cult-related clash in Gboko, 30 suspects have been arrested.

KIDNAPPING

- Ogun State Police have apprehended three suspected kidnapers in a forest along the Imeko/Iwoye-Ketu road. On August 29, the trio was apprehended during a police rescue operation. The armed men, numbering around eight, had blocked the Termac/Iwoye road on that day and shot sporadically. According to police, the hoodlums injured two people while kidnapping three others. The Ogun police spokesman said in a statement on Tuesday that after receiving the distress call, the DPO of Imeko division mobilized his men and other security outfits, and stormed the forest in search of the victims and their abductors. Due to the intense pressure, the kidnapers abandoned their victims and fled. According to a police spokesman, the victims were rescued unharmed, while security personnel discovered three of the suspects hiding in the forest.
- The Rivers State Police Command has arrested a suspected imposter Reverend Sister who is accused of child stealing. The police also rescued fifteen children from her home in Aluu Community in the state's Ikwerre Local Government Area. The Commissioner of Police, who paraded the suspect and twenty other suspects at the command's headquarters in Port Harcourt on Tuesday, stated that operatives from the CP Monitoring Unit stormed the suspect's residence and recovered children based on intelligence.

DAILY SUMMARY ALERT

KIDNAPPING

- The Niger State Police Command apprehended a suspect in connection with the abduction of four victims and the killing of two people in Rafi local government area of the state last year after collecting a ransom of N13 million. On November 14, 2021, around 2 p.m., suspected armed bandits invaded Tegin town, shooting sporadically and abducting four people into Kagara forest. According to the police spokesman, one suspect from Tegin was arrested in connection with the crime on August 29, 2022, based on technical intelligence.
- Gunmen on motorcycles are said to have kidnapped a traditional ruler in Plateau State's Wase Local Government Area. Residents said the traditional ruler was kidnapped on Monday night when gunmen attacked his palace in the Pinau community of the council area. On Tuesday, a resident of Wase town and Chairman of the Action Democratic Congress in the Wase LGA confirmed the monarch's kidnapping in Jos.

NATURAL DISASTER

- The rainstorm that hit several communities in Katsina State destroyed approximately 3, 813 houses and killed five people. The rainstorm affected 13 Local Councils in the state, according to a spokesperson for the State Emergency Management Agency (SEMA), who revealed this yesterday. According to the Spokesperson, three people were killed in Kankara council, while two people died in the Mai'adua council area due to the natural disaster. He stated that the government was working to prevent further flooding in the state, and that an emergency response committee had been formed to prevent an outbreak of cholera as a result of the subsequent flood caused by the rainstorm.

SHOOTING (GUNMEN)

- A renowned Islamic cleric in the South East, was shot dead on Sunday at his home in Isu, Onicha Local Government Area of Ebonyi State, by gunmen suspected to be members of the outlawed Indigenous People of Biafra (IPOB). He died Monday night at the Federal Teaching Hospital in Abakaliki, where he was being treated

THEFT

- Osun Amotekun of the Western Nigeria Security Network Agency apprehended three suspects for alleged goat theft. The suspects were arrested in Osogbo, according to the Osun Amotekun Field Commander, after some operatives of the Oyo State Amotekun sent a signal to the Osun Command that some criminals were dealing in stolen goats. The Field Commander revealed that when the signal was received, the security team swung into action and raided some suspected locations, where the criminals were apprehended.

- The Federal Government has disbanded all anti-vandal units of the Nigeria Security and Civil Defence Corps, NSCDC, that were guarding oil pipelines in the Niger Delta as part of ongoing efforts to eliminate collusion between some bad eggs in the system and non-state actors. The NSCDC Commandant General ordered its dissolution yesterday in Abuja during a meeting with top management and all state commandants of the corps to discuss performance and policies. He stated that the dissolution was carried out in accordance with the Minister of Interior's directive to dissolve all anti-vandal units of the corps with immediate effect.

THEFT

- The Nigerian Police Force's Railway Police Command has increased security around railway corridors in an effort to reduce railway infrastructure theft across the country. According to the Railway Police Command's chief, the command arrested no fewer than 15 suspects in July and August for crimes ranging from theft to vandalism to other heinous crimes committed near the Nigerian Railway Corporation's infrastructure.

RTA

- In a collision involving a Jeep Mercedes and a trailer on Monday night along Kachia road, two people died and seven others were hurt. One of the accident survivors claimed that overspeeding was to blame for the collision. He claimed that while traveling to Kafanchan, the Mercedes-Benz collided head-on with a trailer. The bodies of the deceased have been deposited at the Idon General Hospital, while the injured are being treated at an unnamed hospital.

INSECURITY

- The Nigeria Customs Service (NCS) Federal Operations Unit (FOU) Zone A arrested ten suspects in connection with the importation of 20 drums of carbide, a chemical substance used in the manufacture of Improvised Explosive Devices (IEDs). The chemicals were hidden beneath a truck intercepted in Ijebu Ode, Ogun State, according to the unit's acting controller, who revealed this in Lagos yesterday. Importing such chemicals, he claims, requires the approval of the Office of the National Security Adviser (ONSA), where an End User Certificate (EUC) should have been issued.
